KATHAK DANCE PERFORMANCE

SHARMISTHA MUKHERJEE

Sunday October 16, 2011 - 5.00 pm

Sharmistha Mukherjee is an accomplished Kathak dancer with years of performing experience. She has received extensive training from three most prominent Kathak gurus in India—late Pundit Durgalal, Vidushi Uma Sharma and Shri Rajendra Gangani. Over the years, Sharmistha has developed a unique personal style which is natural, joyous and full of spontaneity. The fleet-footed performer had been outstanding in and outside of India. Sharmistha's creativity took a new direction when she conceptualised and directed a six-episode tele-serial "Taal Mel" on dance. The artiste has recently co-directed a film on contemporary dance in India, named "Beyond Tradition".
